Welcome to The Shamrock Pizza. We are one of Superior's oldest eating establishments. The building itself was built in the mid-1890s and housed a variety of businesses before turning into The Shamrock, as we know it today. Its history started when Louie and Helen Peters bought the building after the repeal of prohibition in the 1930s and they are the ones who turned it into a bar. Their daughter, Eunice, later joined them along with her husband Myron, better known as Mike Kennelly. Pizza wasn't a common food in those days. In fact, the first pizza was served as a bar snack on New Year's Eve of 1953! Mike made the first pizzas at home from a family recipe and carried them over to the bar. Fortunately, he lived in South Superior. His home-made creations were an instant success. It didn't take long before people were calling and ordering them, and the rest, as they say, is history.

The business expanded and an addition was completed in 1969. Mike and his family continued as owners until his retirement in 1978. At that time, The Shamrock was bought by three teachers - Jack Milroy, Paul Branstetter and Ken Thomson. On May 7, 1979, Jerry Joos was hired and began his climb up the corporate ladder until taking over the reins as general manager and good friend to all. The partnership continued until Jack moved on to raise five great kids and Paul entered the world of finance. This left Ken to continue the thriving enterprise until his untimely death in 2015. Jerry, John McKone, bar manager extraordinaire, and Ken's wife, Sandy, still show up every day. Thereby ensuring that the tradition and the fun continue!

To all our friends, customers and employees, past and present,
Thank You!!!
We couldn't have done it without you.
